ATLESBURY AND HIS TRAINER DRIVEN FROM THE ENGLISH TURF.

Age of In and Out Running Against Marquis Sustained—Jockey Martin was With a Reprimand—Jimmy Fitzsimmons of Boston, Whips Jack Stuart of London Twenty One Head—Endorsing News and Notes—Base Ball and Chips.

I cablegram to the Post-Dispatch, on October 1—The stewards of the Club, after a searching investigation over the past fortnight, have issued decision in the case of the suspicious ing of Everitt in the Harewood Plate at the 25th of August. The result of the try is that the Marquis of Aylesbury, owner, and John Tyler, his trainer, are warned of Newmarket Heath and all race courses under the jurisdiction of Jockey Club for life. The charge against Mr. Martin, who rode the horse, was issued, the jockey being cautioned as to his conduct. It was proved to the satisfaction of the stewards that Lord Aylesbury, in the presence of Tyler, his trainer, ordered to Martin to win the race, but Martin finding himself in prominent position towards the finish he failed to carry out orders, the result being a dead heat. The stewards further satisfied themselves that Lord Aylesbury had been given by Lord Aylesbury.

On previous occasions, Notices have been issued upon Lord Aylesbury and upon Tyler, finding them of the judgment pronounced on them. Lord Aylesbury, who has also expelled from the Jockey Club, is warning to sell all his unsold horses and property at Marlborough. The Marquis of Aylesbury, who achieved considerable notoriety as Lord Savernake, seduced to his grandfathers title a year ago, his appearance in the London police is charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct have been of frequent occurrence and he caused a great scandal a few ago by marrying Dolly Terter, one of the most notorious members of the Alhambra. A great frequenter of music-halls, his manners and appearance are those of a common street boy. The case which has now resulted in a fitting climax to his career grew out of the running of a year-old colt, Everitt, for the Harewood Plate at the York August meeting (August 22). The result of the race was a dead heat between Everitt and the Doncaster colt, "that either an attempt had been made to win by an unjustifiable and dangerous distance or that Everitt was willfully stopped," and they returned the case to the stewards of the Harewood Plate. part of this year he had over twenty horses belonging to Lord Aylesbury.

A HAND-FOUGHT MILL.

Jimmy Fitzsimmons of Boston Whips Jack Stuart of England.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch, on October 1—Not for some time has there been so much interest in a fight to the finish between pugilists comparatively unknown as there was in a contest in a West End hall at an early hour yesterday morning. The principals were Jimmy Fitzsimmons of the West End and Jack Stuart of England. Arrangements for the match had been pending for three months or more. Stuart's friends said he could weigh 120 pounds, let his opponent knock him ten pounds heavier and yet whip him. Articles were agreed to at Stuart's hotel, when the main event of the ring they were both down to the stipulated weight. James Covert was announced as referee. The stakes were $200 a purse of $500 was added in the twenty-first round. Before beginning the fight referee Covert announced that the contest would be for scientific points, with two-ounce gloves, fair-play rules to govern.

THE FIGHT. In the first round neither man led for a few seconds. Then Stuart saw an opening and attempted to land on Fitzsimmons' neck, but the latter was too quick for him, and with his right hand he caught Stuart under the jaw and staggered him. After a few exchanges at long range the ring they were both down to the stipulated weight. James Covert was announced as referee. The stakes were $200 a purse of $500 was added in the twenty-first round. Before beginning the fight referee Covert announced that the contest would be for scientific points, with two-ounce gloves, fair-play rules to govern.

THE THIRTIETH ROUND was not and both men got in good work. Fitzsimmons landed a swinging right-hander on Stuart's neck and followed it up with a fierce upper-cut, with his left knocking Stuart across the ring. In the fourteenth round the Englishman crying "four" warm for Stuart. He forced him into his corner, and before he could recover he landed him on the floor. Stuart was immediately and made a game fight, but the Boston boy again knocked Stuart down and on Stuart going to his corner Fitzsimmons followed him and began to hammer him right and left, the Englishman crying "four" and "foul." There was not much heavy hitting in the fifteenth and sixteenth rounds, but in the seventeenth Stuart opened by countering with his left on Fitzsimmons' face. The latter got Stuart's eye and followed it up with a right on Stuart's nose. Stuart was again sent to the floor, but the Englishman was on his feet in a second and wound up the round in a very lively manner. Stuart started the eighteenth round by knocking Stuart down, but he failed to follow up. In the nineteenth round, and also hit him two telling blows, but he failed to follow up. In the twentieth round, the men did not respond very quickly to the call of time for the twentieth round, but Stuart was the first to get up. Fitzsimmons led, and it was soon evident that he intended to force matters. He got Stuart's eye and followed it up with a right on Stuart's nose. the fight, as Stuart got rattled and turned to run. When time was called for the twenty-first round, the men were in a corner and Fitzsimmons began the fighting, and soon had his opponent against the ropes. Stuart began to fight better than at any time in the battle. After Stuart got on his feet for the second time he appeared to be doing well, but he was simply stalling, while Fitzsimmons banged him right and left. Stuart finally dropped down completely exhausted. The referee declared Fitzsimmons the victor. The winner was carried out of the ring on the shoulders of his friends. About $1,000 changed hands on the result.

The Choctaws and Cherokee.

The Indian games at Sportman's Park in which fifty representatives of two rival tribes, the Choctaws and Cherokee, are battling for supremacy, are full of excitement from beginning to end, and are played with a dash and vim which adds greatly to their attractiveness. Regard for one another's feelings is of secondary consideration to the paramount object of "going" the ball, and the struggles that ensue bring out all the native qualities of the red men, and their peculiar style of playing, grotesque attitudes and war dances that are a feature of the game. The goals are placed 200 feet apart, and the "stakes" are twenty feet high. The small, red rubber ball is "cupped" by the Indian players, and is sent whirling toward the goal. The game is a mixture of strategy and brute force, and is a favorite pastime of the Indians. The game is a mixture of strategy and brute force, and is a favorite pastime of the Indians.

We Keep to Cup.

The finish of the second heat between the Thistle and the Volunteer yesterday was in keeping with the balance of the race, as fully described in the Post-Dispatch of yesterday. The American yacht won without trying, beating the Thistle 11 minutes.

Fought to a Draw.

Mike Weir, the "Spider," and Johnnie Murphy, feather-weights both, fought seventeen rounds at Boston last night for a purse of $1,000. Although Murphy was lighter and shorter, the mill was declared a draw by the referee.

clinnati on October 10, 11 and 12, and the remaining games will be played in Chicago on October 13, 14 and 15. The winner of the series will send a challenge to the winner of the world's championship series to play one game at the time and place named by the winner of the Cincinnati team in its present fine trim will be a surprise to the Chicagoans.

Cups and Chips.

Caruthers seems to be in shape. Now, if Dave Fouts comes around the Detroit will have a rocky road to travel.—[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

The special car in which President Stearns, Directors Edison, Smith and Vail and a number of friends of the Detroit Club will come to St. Louis will leave Detroit at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, October 9.

Yon der he is looking up for next season. In addition to Harry Lyons he has signed Devin, the ex-Philadelphia left-hand pitcher and Charley O'Leary, the infielder of the Ashland Club.—[Philadelphia Press.]

John B. Day says he would not object to the exception of Stovey and Miller are reserved for next season. The players were relieved from duty that day when they were at the club has not disbanded. Little Miller and George Washington Stovey are released.

Ted Sullivan announces that he will take the Northwestern League team to New York, and will play at the Polo Grounds, second base: Doran of Oakland, third base; Earl of Duluth, catcher; Quigg of Duluth, second base; and George Washington Stovey are released.

While Dunlap was at bat during the deadly sixth inning yesterday, the Glasgow yelled: "Make him hit it." Arundel, who had been having a lively time in the game, was struck by a razzle-dazzle at this juncture, and jump out of the diamond, and threw the ball at the pitcher. The last catch he made when he was hit it doesn't go anywhere near him. Having crushed the Glasgow, he resumed his mark.—[Detroit Free Press.]

Dan Brouters: "I feel confident Detroit will have a club here next season, and as the city would not stand any but a winner, I think it will be the same team as is now here. It seems to be every prospect of the percentage system again coming to the front, and under it Detroit will do well. I think the only fair system is one based on the drawing ability of a club. It makes no weary to think of the money we have drawn for some of those Eastern clubs and received nothing for it."

Manager Wright says the Philadelphia Club will not send its team to California this winter, but most of the players will go out under the management of the Philadelphia Club. The players who have already signed are Arthur Irwin, catcher, and short-stop; Ferguson and Mule, pitchers; Clements and McGuire, catchers; Mulvey, third base, and George Washington Stovey are released.

Only the little two-for-five better and persons who know little about the game, make such silly charges.—[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

WHEEL WEIHS.

The Manchester Road Race This Evening—The Division Meeting—Notes.

The "Cycle Club's" run to-morrow is to Ballwin. A delegation from Cincinnati is expected over here soon. Whitaker has not yet answered Percy Stone's challenge.

Grouty says he is waiting to hear from Belding for another race to De Soto. The wheelmen of New York City are talking about celebrating the liberty bell with a big parade.

Hollingsworth's recent 2:33 3-5 on a 58-inch wheel is the fastest time on record for so small a wheel. Boston papers are crying out against some evidences of hoodlumism. Such evidences are not wanting here.

Crist, the Washington flyer, holds the amateur mile track record of 2:33 1-5, made at the 200-yard race, the other day. Prince Wells, the Chicago flyer, when last heard from, was making for Mitchell, Dak.

G. P. Mills of England recently took the twenty-four-hour tricycle record by rolling up 294 miles. In the same race a safety rider by Waterhouse made 270 miles and D. Belding by a narrow covered 247 1/2.

G. P. Mills was the winner of the amateur 24-hour road race, under the auspices of the North Road Club, England, and he was the winner of the 24-hour tricycle and covered 266 miles, thus beating the former record by almost sixteen miles.

Editor Bassett of the L. A. W. Bulletin has again got the notion that with the flying start out from the track, ball, or throw the riders. He recently saw some horses do so and is quite sure now that bikes would do the same.

The Boston Globe says: "The meeting place of the St. Louis Cycle Club is called 'The Cave.' They have 'caves' down in Maine, but why they are necessary in such a liberal-minded community as is St. Louis it is not easy to understand."

Asa Wendell of Boston, is considerable of a flyer as well as a trainer, though he has not yet won much fame on the path. He is understood that he will go into racing as a business next year. He recently covered a mile on the Lynn track in 2:45 on a road machine, which is believed to be the fastest mile ever ridden on a roadster.

It has been decided to start the 1,000-mile road race from Boston, Monday, October 10. It is not yet determined who the racers will be, as the men are making exorbitant demands on the makers. Rowe, Hollingsworth, School and others have been asking for big wages. "Holly" is said to have placed his name on a basis of $5,000.

where the meeting will convene at 8 o'clock. There will be an election of a Secretary-Treasurer and the Racing and Touring Committees for next year.

The handicap road race from Manchester to the pump on the Forest Park boulevard will come off this evening at 4 o'clock, rain or shine. The handicaps in minutes are as follows: Klipstein, Snyder, Sanders, Lewis, scratch; Gordon, 4; Fern, 1; Hurd, Hodgen, 2; Hildebrand, Smith, 3; Davidson, Mehlig, 4; Downing, 4 1/2; O'Brien, 5; Hollister, 6; Frommann, 7; Baker, Wheeler, 8; Clark, 9. The officers of the race are: W. M. Brewster, Referee; C. F. A. Beckers, Starter; Lindell (Gordon) Helden and A. K. Stewart, Judges; C. H. Belden, Walter Wythe and A. K. Stewart are handicappers. Face-making will be allowed.

Sam Blacklock will be matched by Holke against the Weir, the "Belast Spider," for any part of $5,000, giving the "Spider" odds of 2 to 1, each man to weigh 124 pounds, or he will not get $500 that Blacklock can stop him in eight rounds.

Mike Cleary, the middle-weight, who was once second only to Sullivan, has sold out his saloon in Louisville and arrives in New York to-day. Cleary says that both Peter J. Nolan and Patsy Cardiff declined to fight him for big money with him.

Jack Dempsey, besides his match with Reagan in December for the middle-weight championship, has signed articles to fight Pete McCoy eight rounds for a purse of $1,000, and Jack McJee eight rounds for a purse of $500, in Boston, between now and December 1.

Coney Island Jockey Club's gate receipts for twenty days ending June 30, 1906, show a total amount of $150,046.50, or an average of nearly $7,500 a day. In accordance with the provision of the New York law the club has paid to the State Comptroller $7,547.34, 5 per cent.

The trial of the charges of professionalism against E. C. Carter, the famous distance runner of the New York Athletic Club, will come off on the 10th of October. The Manhattan Athletic Club is said to be heartily anxious to have the trial, and Carter wishes to withdraw the accusation. Carter insists on being investigated.

Jim Connor of New York and Charley McCarthy of Philadelphia are matched to fight with skin gloves to a finish for a purse of $250, given by a few Philadelphia sports. The fight will take place near that city within two weeks. Both men are in training. Connor at West Chester and McCarthy at Camden. McCarthy was the light-weight trial horse at the college, and fought McAuliffe and other good ones.

"No, I will not put a price on Tremont," said Mr. Phil Dwyer yesterday, in response to the query of a gentleman. "If I were to say what I would take for him people might say that I was not a gentleman. I will not sell him for a song, and if I am not offered what I think he is worth I will leave him to my friend, Col. Clay, in Kentucky and put him in the stud myself. Then his value will be thoroughly tested. If he is a failure as a stallion I will dispose of him at a short price, and that will be the end of it. As it is we are able to keep him, and I will not sell him for him for any one."

Special Trains Missouri Pacific Railroad. For Velled Prophets' Procession, October 4, trains will leave Union Depot, in addition to the regular trains, as follows: M., K. & T. Ry. Express, leaving at 10:30 p. m., and a second section, leaving at 11 p. m., will be run, through to Kansas City; Washington Accommodation, leaving at 5:25 p. m., will run to Kirkwood only, and a special, leaving at 11:15 p. m., will run through to Washington; Kirkwood special train will leave at 10:15 p. m. Above named trains will stop at all intermediate stations.

Boys' overcoats, $1.50 to $3.00, at FAIRBANKS.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Intending purchasers of POND'S EXTRACT cannot take too much precaution to prevent substitution. Some druggists, trading on the popularity of the great Family Remedy, attempt to palm off other preparations, unsuspiciously asserting them to be "the same as" or "equal to" POND'S EXTRACT, indifferent to the deceit practiced upon and disappointment thereby caused to the purchaser, so long as larger profits accrue to themselves. Always insist on having POND'S EXTRACT. Take no other.
